1. Description of the Product

Information on Underlying

Underlying	Initial Underlying Level
Risk On Risk Premia Total Return Portfolio (the "Total Return Portfolio" or the "Underlying") (as further described in Annex 1)	USD 10,000

The Total Return Portfolio aims to provide investors with exposure to a USD denominated Portfolio (as described in Annex 2) and a USD denominated synthetic cash account. The Portfolio, in turn, provides exposure to a basket of constituents (each a "Portfolio Constituent" and together the "Portfolio Constituents"). Each Portfolio Constituent represents exposure, net of interest rates (if applicable) and costs, to an Underlying Portfolio Constituent that is a risk premia index owned by UBS AG. The composition of the Portfolio is rebalanced on a monthly basis in accordance with a risk budgeted allocation mechanism which allows each Portfolio Constituent in the Portfolio to contribute a specified amount of risk to the Portfolio. The pre-determined scoring methodology which determines the amount of risk assigned to each Portfolio Constituent is described in Annex 2.

Dates

Launch Date	05 July 2017
Pricing Date ("Pricing")	05 July 2017
Payment Date (Issue Date)	12 July 2017
Last Trading Day / Time	05 July 2024 / 17:15 CET
Expiration Date ("Expiry")	05 July 2024 (subject to Market Disruption Event provisions, Stop Loss Event and Issuer Call Right). Provided that if the intended Expiration Date mentioned herein is not a Portfolio Trading Day, then the Expiration Date shall be the first following day that is a Portfolio Trading Day.
Redemption Date	Means the 5 th (fifth) Portfolio Business Day following the Expiration Date, the Automatic Early Termination Date or the Effective Exercise Date (in any case subject to Market Disruption Event Provisions).
Issuer Call Right	Yes. Please refer to the respective definition.

Redemption

The Investor is entitled to receive from the Issuer on the Redemption Date an amount (the "Redemption Amount") in the Settlement Currency equal to 100% of the Certificate Level on the Expiration Date, the Automatic Early Termination Date or the Effective Exercise Date, as applicable.

Certificate Level On any Portfolio Business Day "t", the Certificate Level is calculated as:

$$C_t = C_{t-1} \times \left(\frac{U_t}{U_{t-1}} - MF \times \frac{\text{Day Count}}{360} \right)$$

Where:

C_0 = the Issue Price;
 U_t = the Underlying Level on Portfolio Business Day t , calculated in accordance with the provisions in Annex A;
 U_{t-1} = the Underlying Level on Portfolio Business Day $t-1$;
 MF = the Management Fee; and
 Day Count = The number of calendar days from, but excluding, Portfolio Business Day "t-1" to, and including, Portfolio Business Day "t".

In case a notional investor (in the same position as the Issuer) would be unable to unwind its investments in the Underlying on the Expiration Date, the Automatic Early Termination Date or the Effective Exercise Date, as applicable, or if such unwinding on the Expiration Date, the Automatic Early Termination Date or the Effective Exercise Date, as applicable, would lead to a commercially unreasonable result, as determined in the reasonable discretion of the Calculation Agent, the Issuer reserves the right to determine the Certificate Level over a period of several consecutive Portfolio Trading Days in which a notional Investor in the Underlying in the same position as the Issuer would be able to fully unwind investments in the Underlying for a commercially reasonable price. In such case, the Redemption Date may be postponed accordingly.

Stop Loss Event

A Stop Loss Event shall be deemed to occur if on any Portfolio Business Day the Certificate Level during the period from, and including, the Pricing Date to, but excluding, the Expiration Date or Effective Exercise Date (as applicable), is at or below the Stop Loss Level, as determined by the Calculation Agent. In case of a Stop Loss Event, the Product will automatically terminate on the Portfolio Trading Day that is at least 2 Portfolio Business Days immediately following the Portfolio Business Day on which such Stop Loss Level is breached (the "Automatic Early Termination Date").

Please note that the Redemption amount may be significantly less than the Stop Loss Level in case of a Stop Loss Event.

Product Structure

With a Tracker Certificate, Investors can participate in the positive and negative performance of the Underlying. Should the Tracker Certificate ever reach the Stop Loss Level, it shall then be terminated on the Automatic Early Termination Date, taking into account the prevailing Underlying Level, which may be substantially lower than the Stop Loss Level. Tracker Certificates are a structured product for Investors who expect the Underlying to increase in value.

The following is a summary of the most significant risks. Further risks are set out in the Product Documentation.
Risk Tolerance	Investors in this Product should be experienced Investors and familiar with both derivative products and the Underlying asset class(es) of this product.

Product Specific Risks

Loss Potential	Investors may lose some or, in the worst case, all of the investment as they are fully exposed to the negative performance of the Underlying. However, should the underlying ever reach the Stop Loss Level, the Products shall automatically terminate at the prevailing unwind price (less any applicable Transaction Costs) on the Automatic Early Termination Date, which may be substantially lower than the Stop Loss Level.

Price Source Disruption Event	It may become impossible to obtain the Underlying Level, most likely due to, but not limited to, level or price of the assets and/or financial contracts that comprise the Portfolio Constituents and/or Underlying Portfolio Constituents not being available during the lifetime of the Product and/or on the Expiration Date, the Automatic Early Termination Date or the Effective Exercise Date, as applicable, due to one or more of the price sources normally used in the relevant market for the Underlying being unavailable because an unscheduled bank closure is declared on short notice in the relevant country or due to the occurrence of any other disruption (each a "Price Source Disruption Event"). The Calculation Agent will determine in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner whether a Price Source Disruption Event has occurred. A Price Source Disruption Event may lead to (i) a postponement of the Expiration Date, the Automatic Early Termination Date or the Effective Exercise Date, as applicable, and therefore of the Redemption Date, (ii) the use of an alternative source for the Underlying, relevant Portfolio Constituents, relevant Underlying Portfolio Constituents and/or relevant asset and/or financial contract comprising the Underlying Portfolio Constituent, and/or (iii) the unilateral determination of the applicable level or price by the Calculation Agent. Such postponement, use of alternative price source and/or determination of the applicable level or price by the Calculation Agent may affect, materially or otherwise, the Redemption Amount which the Investor will receive.
Extraordinary termination risk	The Product contains terms and conditions that allow the Issuer to terminate and redeem the Product prior to the Redemption Date. In case of such extraordinary termination, the Issuer shall pay to the Investors an extraordinary termination amount as determined by the Calculation Agent which is usually equivalent to the market value of the Product. Potential Investors should note that the extraordinary termination amount may deviate from and may be considerably below the amount which would be payable pursuant to the final redemption provisions on the Redemption Date. Investors are not entitled to request any further payments on the Product after the Redemption Date.
Adjustment risk	Potential Investors should be aware that it cannot be excluded that certain events occur or certain measures are taken (by parties other than the Issuer) in relation to the Underlying(s) which can lead to changes to the Underlying(s) or its concept (e.g. corporate events of a company whose shares constitute an Underlying, market disruption events or other circumstances affecting normal activities). In the case of the occurrence of such events or measures, the Issuer and/or the Calculation Agent are entitled to effect adjustments according to the Product Documentation. Such adjustments might have a negative impact on the value of the Product.
Illiquidity risk in secondary market	The Issuer or the Lead Manager, as applicable, intends, under normal market conditions, to provide bid and/or offer prices for this Product on a regular basis. However, the Issuer or the Lead Manager, as applicable, makes no firm commitment to provide liquidity by means of bid and/or offer prices for this Product, and assumes no legal obligation to quote any such prices or with respect to the level or determination of such prices. Potential Investors therefore should not rely on the ability to sell this Product at a specific time or at a specific price. Potential Investors should note that prices quoted typically include a spread and therefore may deviate from the market value of the Product. In special market situations, where the Issuer is completely unable to enter into hedging transactions, or where such transactions are very difficult to enter into, the spread between the bid and offer prices in the secondary market may be temporarily expanded, in order to limit the economic risks of the Issuer. Hence, Investors might sell at a price considerably lower than the actual price of the Product at the time of its sale. By selling the Product in the secondary market Investors may receive less than the capital invested. In case of a secondary market transaction, there is a possibility that costs, including taxes, related to or in connection with the Product may arise for Investors that are not paid by the Issuer or imposed by the Issuer.

Risks specific to commodity investments	Investments in commodities may have greater volatility than investments in traditional securities, particularly if the instruments involve leverage. The value of commodity-linked derivative instruments may be affected by changes in overall market movements, commodity index volatility, changes in interest rates, or factors affecting a particular industry or commodity, such as drought, floods, weather, livestock disease, embargoes, tariffs and international economic, political and regulatory developments. Use of leveraged commodity-linked derivatives creates an opportunity for increased return but, at the same time, creates the possibility for greater loss.
Market Disruption risk	Investors are exposed to market disruption events (such as trading disruption, exchange disruption and early closure of the relevant exchange), which could have an impact on the redemption amount through delay in payment, change in value or suspension of trading in the Product in the secondary market. Where the Issuer is completely unable to enter into hedging transactions, for reasons not related to activities of the Issuer, or when entering into such hedging transactions would lead to a commercially unreasonable result, for reasons not related to activities of the Issuer, as determined in the reasonable discretion of the Issuer or the Lead Manager, as applicable, the spread between the bid and offer prices in the secondary market may be temporarily expanded, in order to limit the economic risks of the Issuer. For a detailed description of such events and their effects please refer to the Product Documentation.
Calculation Agent's discretion	The Calculation Agent has a broad discretionary authority to make various determinations and adjustments under the Products, any of which may have an adverse effect on the value and/or the amounts payable under the Products. Prospective investors should be aware that any determinations made by the Calculation Agent may have an impact on the value and financial return of the Products. Where the Calculation Agent is required to make a determination it may do so without taking into account the interests of the holders of the Product.
Back-testing	The Portfolio and the Portfolio Constituents contain data derived as a result of back-testing of data (prior to the Pricing Date) by using UBS' standard methodology for information of this kind. That methodology may rely on proprietary models, empirical data, assumptions and such other information that UBS believes to be accurate and reasonable. UBS makes, however, no representation as to the accuracy, completeness or appropriateness of such methodology and accept no liability for the investors' use of the information. Specifically, there is no assurance that other banks or brokers would derive the same results for the back-test period. The current data that UBS selected for this purpose may be substantially different if the date is selected from a different time period and this may have substantial impact on the back-testing results. Investors should also note that back-testing results may project unrealistic expectation on the performance of the subject product. Past performance is not necessarily indicative of future results.
Withholding tax	Investors in this Product should note that any payment under this Product may be subject to withholding tax (such as, inter alia, Swiss Withholding Tax, and/or withholding related to FATCA or 871(m) of the US Tax Code). Any payments due under this Product are net of such tax. Please refer to the General Terms and Conditions for detailed information. If the Issuer is required to withhold any amount pursuant to Section 871(m) or FATCA of the U.S. Tax Code, the Issuer will not be required to pay additional amounts with respect to the amount so withheld.

Risk Factors relating to the Issuer

In addition to the market risk with regard to the development of the Underlying, each Investor bears the general risk that the financial situation of the Issuer could deteriorate. The Products constitute immediate, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, which, particularly in case of insolvency of the Issuer, rank pari passu with each and all other current and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, with the exception of those that have priority due to mandatory statutory provisions. The general assessment of the Issuer's creditworthiness may affect the value of the Products. This assessment generally depends on the ratings assigned to the Issuer or its affiliated companies by rating agencies such as Moody's, Fitch and Standard & Poor's.

The Issuer Ratings indicated in this document reflect the situation at the time of issuance and may be subject to changes. The actual Issuer Ratings at any given time can be seen on the Issuer's website (www.ubs.com) under "Analysts & Investors".

ANNEX 1: Description of the Total Return Portfolio (the "Underlying")

Description of the Underlying	The Total Return Portfolio (the "Underlying") aims to provide investors with exposure to a USD denominated Portfolio (as described in Annex 2) and an interest bearing USD denominated synthetic cash account. The allocation to the USD denominated synthetic cash account is reset on each Underlying Rebalancing Date, as described below.
Underlying Level	On any Portfolio Business Day, the Underlying Level will be determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula: $U_t = U_R \times \left(\frac{I_t}{I_R} - 1 \right) + U_R \times \prod_{i=R+1}^t \left(1 + (FF_{i-1}) \times \frac{\text{Day Count}(t-1, i)}{360} \right)$ Where: U₀: the Underlying Level with respect to the Pricing Date, and shall be equal to C₀; U_R: the Underlying Level with respect to the immediately preceding Underlying Rebalancing Date or, if none, the Pricing Date; I_t: the Portfolio Level on Portfolio Business Day t, calculated in accordance with the provisions in Annex B; I_R: the Portfolio Level with respect to the immediately preceding Underlying Rebalancing Date or, if none, the Pricing Date. For the avoidance of doubt, if the current Portfolio Business Day is an Underlying Rebalancing Date, then the Portfolio Level on the preceding Underlying Rebalancing Date shall be used; FF_{t-1}: the Fed Fund Target Rate as published on Bloomberg page FDTR <Index> with respect to Portfolio Business Day "t-1", as determined by the Calculation Agent; and Day Count: the number of calendar days from, but excluding, Portfolio Business Day "t-1" to, and including, Portfolio Business Day "t".
Underlying Rebalancing Date	Rebalancing Date, as defined in Annex 2

ANNEX 2: Description of the Portfolio

Description of the Portfolio	The Portfolio provides exposure to a basket of constituents (each a "Portfolio Constituent" and together the "Portfolio Constituents"). The composition of the Portfolio is rebalanced on a monthly basis in accordance with a risk budgeted allocation mechanism which allows each Portfolio Constituent in the Portfolio to contribute a specified amount of risk to the Portfolio. The pre-determined scoring methodology which determines the amount of risk assigned to each Portfolio Constituent is described below.
Portfolio Base Date	3 September 2009 The Portfolio and the Portfolio Constituents contain data derived as a result of back-testing of data (prior to the Pricing Date) by using UBS' standard methodology for information of this kind. That methodology may rely on proprietary models, empirical data, assumptions and such other information that UBS believes to be accurate and reasonable. UBS makes, however, no representation as to the accuracy, completeness or appropriateness of such methodology and accept no liability for the investors' use of the information. Specifically, there is no assurance that other banks or brokers would derive the same results for the back-test period. The current data that UBS selected for this purpose may be substantially different if the date is selected from a different time period and this may have substantial impact on the back-testing results. Investors should also note that back-testing results may project unrealistic expectation on the performance of the subject product. Past performance is not necessarily indicative of future results.
Portfolio Level	On the Portfolio Base Date, the Initial Portfolio Level ("I₀") is equal to 100.00. The Portfolio Level with respect to any Portfolio Business Day "t" thereafter ("I_t") will be determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula: $I_t = I_R + \text{MTM}_t - \text{Rebal Cost}_t$ Where:

$$MTM_t = \sum_{k=1}^{N_R} \text{ActualUnit}_R^k \times (\text{Price}_t^k - \text{Price}_R^k) \times (\text{FX}_t^k)$$

$$\text{Rebal Cost}_t = \sum_{k=1}^{N_R} (|\text{ActualUnit}_R^k - \text{ActualUnit}_{R-1}^k| \times \text{Price}_R^k \times (\text{FX}_R^k) \times \text{Transaction Cost}^k)$$

Where:

- I_{WD}: the Portfolio Level with respect to the relevant Weight Calculation Date;

FX^{k_{WD}}: the Spot Exchange Rate of Portfolio Constituent "k" with respect to the relevant Weight Calculation Date, as defined herein.

Target Weight of Portfolio Constituent
 "k"
 (Target Weight^{k_{WD}})

On each Weight Calculation Date, the Target Weight with respect to Portfolio Constituent "k" (Target Weight^{k_{WD}}) is a number determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the following scoring and mathematical optimisation:

- 1) All Portfolio Constituents are divided into three categories (each a "Category" and together the "Categories"):
 - a. Risk On Constituents;
 - b. Neutral Constituents; and
 - c. Defensive Constituents.
- 2) A score (the "Score") is assigned to each Portfolio Constituent "k" (s^k) such that the sum of the Scores in each Category shall equal:
 - a. 1 (one) for the all Risk On Constituents;
 - b. 0 (zero) for all Neutral Constituents; and
 - c. 0 (zero) for all Defensive Constituents.
- 3) Within each Category, the Portfolio Constituents are divided into three sub-groups (each a "Sub-Group" and together the "Sub-Groups"):
 - a. In respect of Risk On Constituents, the Sub-Groups shall be (i) Volatility Carry, (ii) FX Carry, and (iii) Dividends;
 - b. In respect of Neutral Constituents, the Sub-Groups shall be Commodities Carry, and (ii) Commodities Congestion; and
 - c. In respect of Defensive Constituents, the Sub-Groups shall be (i) X-Asset Trend, (ii) Rates Low Beta, and (iii) Rates Carry.
- 4) The Scores between all Sub-Groups within each Category shall be equal.

The final Scores in respect of each Portfolio Constituent "k" according to the above provisions is summarized in table:

Category	Risk on Portfolio Constituents				Neutral Portfolio Constituents				Defensive Portfolio Constituents
	Vol Carry		FX Carry	Dividends	Commodities Carry		Commodities Congestion	X-Asset Trend	Rates Low Beta	Rates Carry

Score (s^k)	0.167	0.167	0.333	0.333	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

The mathematical optimisation uses a numerical solver to maximise the following function:

$$\sum_{k=1}^{N_{WD}} s^k \cdot \ln(w_{WD}^k)$$

Where:

N_{WD}: the total number of Portfolio Constituents that comprise the Portfolio on the relevant Weight Calculation Date.

W^{k_{WD}}: the Target Weight of Portfolio Constituent "k" with respect to the Weight Calculation Date, rounded to one decimal place; and

The numerical solver shall operate under the following constraints:
